

International Management Week

Don't miss our 20-year anniversary edition!

You will solve an interesting case study in the field of career management. Throughout this challenging programme, a professional HR manager will guide you.

Students work in international teams, consisting of both Belgian and other European students. The language of communication is English, but you may still have to cross some cultural borders too.

If you want to win that final prize, then you will have to prove your creativity and your communication skills. At the end of this week, the most innovative team will receive an award from a professional jury.

The programme includes guided workshops, eye-opening lectures, a wheel of career, a visit to Brussels, a European drink, a reception at the historic Leuven Town Hall and much more.
